

HYDERABAD KARNATAKA EDUCATION SOCIETY'S
DR MAALAKARADDY,
HOMOEOPATHIC MEDICAL COLLEGE & HOSPITAL
KALABURAGI.

COURSE OUTCOME

At the end of the course of Homoeopathic pharmacy, I BHMS students will be able to

1. Explain the principles that govern Homoeopathic pharmacy.
2. Discuss the pharmacognosical basis of Homoeopathic drugs with respect to their identification, nomenclature, source, part used, method of collection & preparation.
3. Prepare Homoeopathic medicines from their respective sources according to different scales & methods of potentiation on a small scale in the laboratory.
4. Describe the pharmacology of Homoeopathic drugs with respect to the type of drug action, sphere of action & pharmacological action of Homoeopathic drugs integrated with Homoeopathic Materia Medica, Anatomy & Physiology.
5. Relate the methodology of Homoeopathic drug proving integrated with Organon of medicine.
6. Apply the principles of Homoeopathic posology in different health care setting like OPD/IPD integrated with Organon of medicine & Homoeopathic Materia Medica.
7. State the methods of standardisation & quality control of Homoeopathic medicines to ensure the genuineness of Homoeopathic medicines.
8. Explain the principles of pharmaconomy, dispensing & preservation of Homoeopathic medicines.
9. Engage the principles of pharmacovigilance, & adverse drug reactions in relation to Homoeopathic medicines.
10. Write an ideal prescription.
11. Evaluate the scope for research in Homoeopathic pharmacy in the context of the recent advancement in pharmaceutical sciences.